

LET'S BUILD A NUNAVUT PERFORMING ARTS CENTRE!

Qaggiavuut, a non-profit Nunavut performing arts society, invites you to be our partner in an historic event :

- Nunavut is the only territory/province without a performing arts centre
- Stories and music provide children with a sense of belonging
- Inuit stories, songs, dances and drums were banned during colonization and are being reclaimed by Inuit artists
- The performing arts are the most effective way of securing a language at risk

We need a space for Inuit performers to create, build skills and present their art.
